

Science

Materials and their properties

This week we would like you to sort seaside objects into a Venn diagram according to their properties.

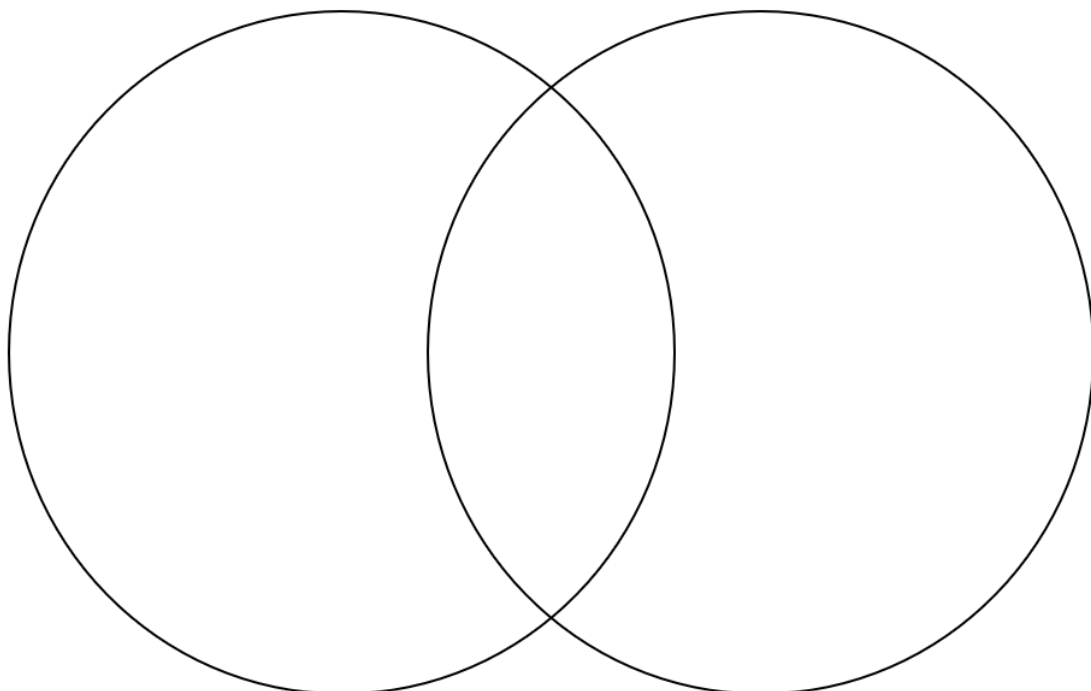

Here are some examples of objects you can use.

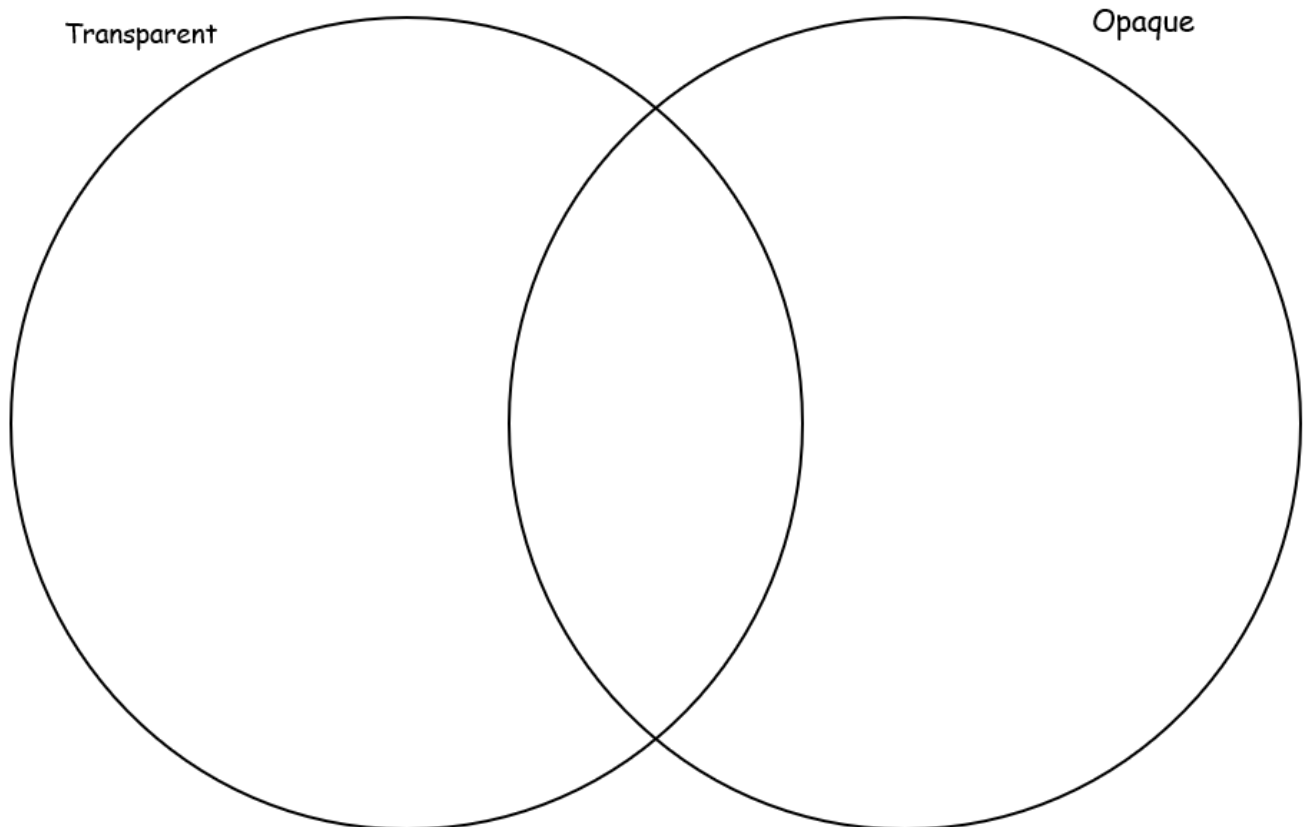

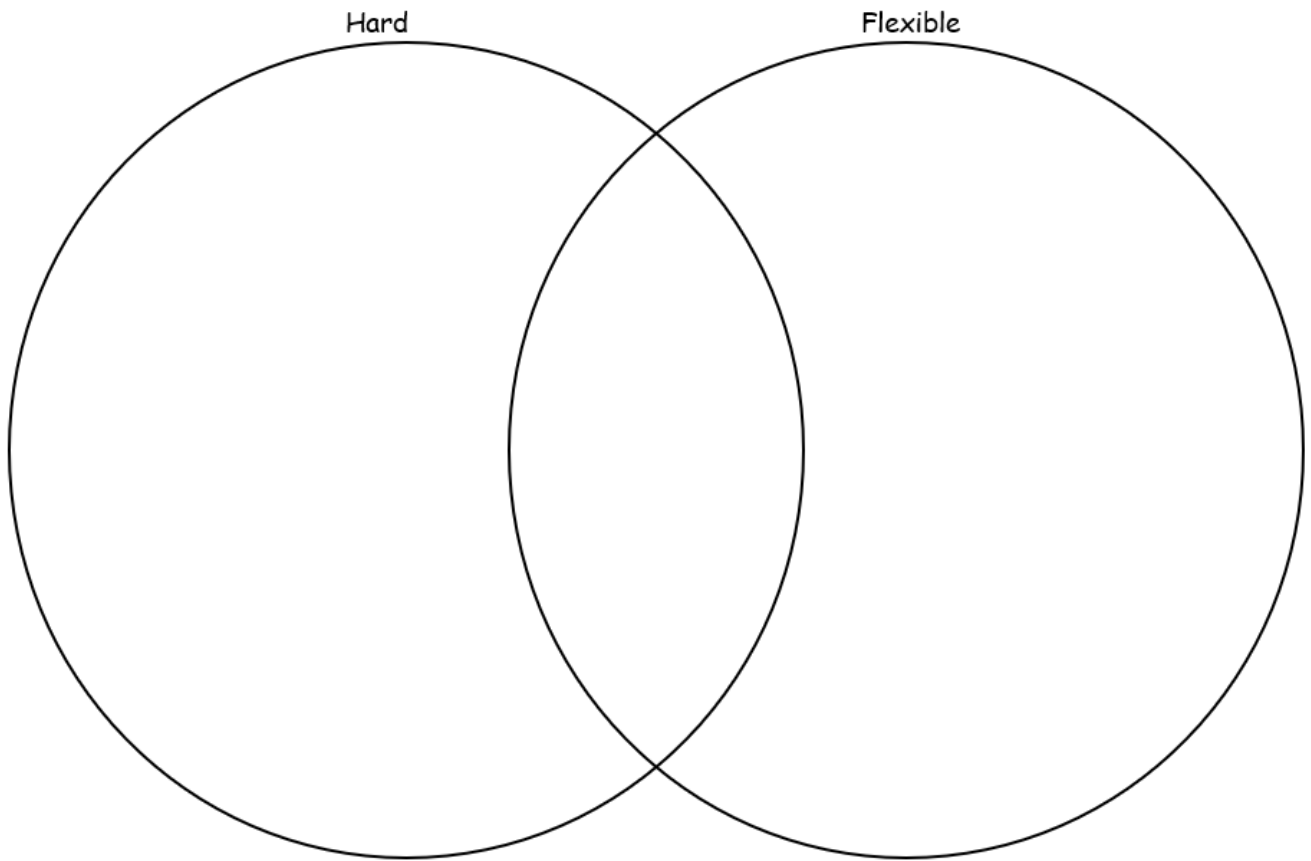

Draw and label them in a Venn diagram.

A Venn diagram looks like this:

The overlapping part is where the object shares both properties.

Choose 1 Venn diagram to do from the choices below and draw it out in your homework book.

HARD

FLEXIBLE

