

Friday 25th September – Science homework

In Science this half term we are learning about animals and their habitats. This week we'd like you to name things that are alive, dead (used to be alive) and never alive. Think back to the walk around school that we did to help you.

Alive	Dead (Used to Be Alive)	Never Been Alive
 rose	 log	 metal bin

Star challenge - Choose something from the alive part of the table and explain how you know it is alive. For example. The rose is alive because it grows.

Spelling

Each week will list the spellings we have been working on in class. The children can choose 5 words to practice from the list below. They can write them out 5 times or choose to write them in a sentence.
